

THINK PINK

While October marks the 25th anniversary of National Breast Cancer Awareness Month – the national campaign devoted to educating and empowering breast cancer patients and survivors and their family and friends – breast cancer remains the most common cancer in women in the United States. In an effort to help win the race for a cure, this column in Health & Wellness and Style & Shopping sections of the Courier-Post will Go PINK WITH A PURPOSE for the entire month as we highlight products where the proceeds are to be donated to breast cancer research

Photo provided
Sweet Grapefruit Mantra Candle is scented with pure organic oils and a mantra displayed on the glass jar, iPod headset accessory that houses the wires in a plastic round enclosure to keep them from twisting and tangling. The felt-lined center compartment on the earPod can even store ear buds and plug to protect them from damage or getting lost, $9.99, www.cableorganizer.com.

Photo provided

Photo provided
Coleman's outdoor extension cords are 12-gauge, 15-amp cords made flexible with a weather resistant vinyl jacket. A clear molded indicator light lets you know when the power is connected and current is going through the cord. $23.75, www.cableorganizer.com.

Photo provided
Make your cables look great and save them from abrasions; 35 cents per foot, www.cableorganizer.com.

