

THE LEASH YOU CAN DO

This just in from our old dogs and new tricks department: Fetch! Pet Care, the nation's largest franchised pet-sitting and dog-walking network, with 144 locations in 33 states, has announced a recruiting drive aimed at retired individuals and older folks with time on their hands. Veteran animal lovers can make some additional income plus get daily exercise and, best of all, plenty of licks on the face from their happy charges. Why recruit oldsters? Explains Fetch! founder and CEO Paul Mann: "They've owned pets for years and have been proven to be professional, reliable, nurturing, and dedicated to providing high-caliber service." Okay, but how do they feel about picking up the poop? For information about working for Fetch! Pet Care, call 866-338-2463 or visit www.FetchPetCare.com/jobs. —Ed Dwyer
