TIPS FOR YOU!!

Each week, I would like to give you useful tips. (If you should have any, please pass them on to me. Thanks). TIPS ON 'ANY AND EVERYTHING'....(and some are not for everyone) ...so... Tip: GREENER CLEANING - Make your Spring Spruce-up healthier this year with a eco-friendly cleaning guide from Readers' Digest. You will find surprising uses for vinegar, ways to allergy-proof your home, a shopping list of healthy household products, and more. Go to: readersdigest.com/greencleaning. (Taken from ReadersDigest.com)

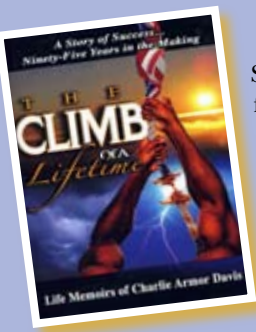

RECIPE/FOOD - (If you have recipes you would like to share, send them to me). CREAMY CHICKEN ENCHILADAS - Prep time: 10 min. Total time: 35 min. Makes 6 servings. What You Need: 2-1/2 cups chopped cooked chicken, 1 can (10-3/4 oz.) condensed cream of chicken soup, 1 pkg. (8 oz.) KRAFT Shredded Colby & Monterey Jack Cheese, divided, 1 cup BREAKSTONE'S or KNUDSEN Sour Cream, divided, 1/4 cup chopped cilantro, divided, 12 flour tortillas (8 inch), 1-1/2 cups TACO BELL® HOME ORIGINALS® Thick 'N Chunky Salsa. Make It! HEAT oven to 350°F. MIX chicken, soup, 1 cup cheese, 1/2 cup sour cream and 3 Tbsp. cilantro until well blended. Spoon down centers of tortillas, adding about 1/4 cup to each; roll up. PLACE, seam-sides down, in 13x9-inch baking dish sprayed with cooking spray; top with salsa and remaining cheese. BAKE 25 min. or until heated through. Top with remaining sour cream and cilantro. Kraft Kitchens Tips and Serving Suggestion: Serve with a mixed green salad and your favorite fresh fruit to round out the meal. Shortcut: Substitute 2 pkg. (6 oz. each) OSCAR MAYER Deli Fresh Oven Roasted Chicken Breast Cuts for the chopped cooked fresh chicken. Or, use 2 pkg. (6 oz. each) OSCAR MAYER Southwestern Seasoned or Grilled Chicken Breast Strips, cut into bite-sized pieces. Note: Tortillas can be warmed before use for easier handling. Just stack tortillas, then wrap in foil. Bake at 350°F for 10 to 15 min. or just until warmed. Or, wrap tortillas loosely in wax paper and microwave on HIGH 1 min. or just until warmed. (This is a Kraft Recipe, taken from Kraft Foods) Enjoy!

BOOK NEWS By Esther Callens • "The Climb of a Lifetime"

A story of Success ... ninety-five years making "The Climb of a Lifetime." Mr. Charlie Armor Davis, made a name for himself in the community as husband, father, community leader and businessman. This is a portrait of an African American man, his self-awareness and struggles. A clearly written biography, illuminating improvement regarding with himself, his family and community. Making the best of an intolerable job situation, always striving for the best for his family. Mr. Charlie Armor Davis made his decisions based on what would benefit others, self and family. He always used sound knowledge and good judgment regarding his life and family. "Just put God in front and everything will be all-right" was his motto. His ideas of living was broad, always looking to find his niche, starting at a young age. He was a plant worker, on the tracks as a Pullman Porter, an inventor, owning convenience stores with ice cream parlors; vegetables delivery; laundromats, nothing was impossible for Mr. Charlie Armor Davis, an African American entrepreneur. Mr. Davis has had many ventures in his life and still looking for more adventures. This book is definitely worth reading.

BOOK NEWS By Esther Callens • "Walk In My Shoes"

Did you know that Andrew Young was a prominent figure in the civil rights movement? Fact is, he was a top aide to Rev. Dr. Martin Luther King Jr. This information and many other historical facts can be found in Walk In My Shoes - Conversations Between A Civil Rights Legend And His Godson On The Journey Ahead by Andrew Young and Kabir Sehgal with a foreword by President Bill Clinton. It is a fascinating glimpse into the life of one of America's most important activists.

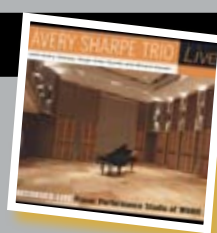

Walk In My Shoes details the turbulent past, the constant present and hopeful future. The shared dialogue between Young and his godson Sehgal is lively and passionate. It is a meeting of the past with the future - as Young offers his wisdom to a new generation in hopes to encourage a bright future. It is inviting.

Told in a fireside manner, Walk In My Shoes encapsulates all that Sehgal was told by his Uncle Andy (Young). It is divided into three sections that address such issues as civil rights, race, faith, love and finally leadership. The sections include subsections with titles like Slide Over Rosa - We Youngsters Can Help, Cupid Learns The Rule Of 4 P's and The Outer Voice. As a father speaks to his son, so will Walk In My Shoes speak to the youth of our nation.

Andrew young is a politician, diplomat and pastor from Georgia. He has served as a United States Ambassador to the United Nations, Congressman and Mayor. He was a friend of Dr. Martin Luther King, Jr. and he is the recipient of numerous honorary degrees and awards including the Presidential Medal of Freedom. He is the author of A Way Out Of No Way and he resides in Atlanta.

Kabir Sehgal studied at Dartmouth College and the London School of Economics. He was also a special assistant to Senator Max Cleland on the John Kerry presidential campaign. He works for JP Morgan. He is the author of Jazzocracy: Jazz, Democracy, and the Creation of a New American Mythology. He lives in New York.

MUSICAL NOTES • "Recorded Live"

The Avery Sharpe Trio has just released a new live recording. Avery Sharpe Trio Recorded Live - Fraser Performance Studio at WGBH is the title of this extraordinary musical compilation.

It encapsulates a diverse style and matchless range, all that and more. This is what Sharpe has become known for, which is nothing short of awesome.

Recorded Live features Onaje Alla Gumbs on piano, Winard Harper on percussion, with Sharpe on acoustic bass. The selections include Blues On The Corner - which is a marvelous opener that swings; the somewhat somber sound of Morning and the driving, rhythmic Dragon Fly. There is also a marvelous interpretation of My Favorite Things. All of these are wonderful.

Although Sharpe studied economics at the University of Massachusetts, his heart was in music. Forever a bass player, he eventually learned acoustic and began performing with Archie Shepp and Art Blakey. He is an accomplished composer that has written numerous soundtracks including the music for An Unremarkable Life.

Beat Kaestli has just released a new CD. Invitation is the apt moniker given this exceptional recording, which by the way is a debut released for Chesky Records. Invitation is an acoustic masterpiece with impeccable vocals and flawless music. It is impressive.

Urbane describe Kaestli perfectly and Invitation is a replica of him. Day In Day Out, My Foolish Heart, and My Romance are some of the presented tracks. With rich vocals, Invitation was recorded at historic St. Peter's Church in New York City. Using a single point microphone, Chesky records deliver a most pure recording capturing the full 360-degree acoustic of the church, which makes this a very special, one of a kind recording.

Kaestli is a unique vocalist, songwriter, producer and arranger. Originally from Switzerland, he moved to New York and now frequently entertains audiences at some of New York's finest nightspots. He is a seasoned performer that continually amazes his fans.
