Livi Lu Lu bath and beauty items

Herban Renewal's all-natural line of Livi-Lu Lu bath and beauty products are touted to make girls' skin giggle. Sparkling lotions, shimmering bath gels, glittery dusts and supple lip balm keep skin soft, fragrant and radiant while pampering girls as they were when they were infants — and as they want to be the rest of their lives.

Gift sets of multiple products cost about $25. Visit www.herbanrenewalinc.com.

NEW PRODUCTS

Olive Kids Dresserz

Olive Kids Dresserz help kids dress themselves by making their clothes easier to put away. They may even help kids put away their clean, folded clothes — good luck. The illustrated dresser handles are easy to install and available in singles, pairs or assortments of six.

Assortments of six cost $36 at www.olivekids.com.

Revolution strollers

The Revolution 12" AW stroller from BOB Gear boasts smaller, 12-inch wheels and a design that's more city-friendly than comparable models. It maneuvers around tight corners and through storefronts without stopping all other traffic and without sacrificing durability or safety.

It costs about $400. Visit www.bobgear.com for retailers.

St. Eve kids beach wrap

Maybe it's time to throw in the towel — in favor of a wearable wrap. The St. Eve kids beach wrap features plush terry cloth in summer colors with Velcro closures. It can make leaving the pool more stylish, and drier for the car.

It costs about $20 at Sears and select online retailers.

'Superhero,' in time for Father's Day

Written by Don Winn in honor of fathers everywhere, "Superhero" tells the tale of a hero who must ultimately turn to his hero — his dad. The book is written for all ages and includes discussion questions to spark dialogue.

It costs about $8 and is available through major booksellers.
