Welcome to the April Fools' Day edition of "Me Time." Only we're not kidding; this stuff really exists.

Poo-Pourri

Who wants a reminder of the deadly diaper you just disposed of? This sweet-smelling spray eliminates and replaces the lingering odor. Poopourri.com

Qwik Shower Gym Class Wipes

These little, er, "really big pre-moistened" wipes are perfect for your gym bag or purse. If public showers freak you out, have no fear! No stray hairs stuck to the walls or overly casual neighbors inside this little bag. QwikShower.com

Boogie Wipes

Avoid the embarrassment of a booger-clad child with a quick swipe of a Boogie Wipe. Available in a bulk container or a single-use bag, great for little backpacks. boogiewipes.com

Calmspace

It's a Monday morning on the metro, and a sweaty wifebeater-wearing McDonald's-carrying comb-over-sporting man takes his seat next to you. The smell of a week's worth of fast food and sweat from high cholesterol has no chance against the soothing scent of Calmspace. calm-space.com

Stinky Boyz

Young boys seem to take pride in the amount of days it's been since they have showered. Stinky Boyz all-natural soap comes in cool sports-related shapes, to promote good hygiene. stinky-boyz.com
