

BLIND ARTISTS MAKE JEWELRY

The pretty pendants in the Art of Possibility Studios collection are conversation starters for a number of reasons: The original artwork is created by one of two blind artists – Ketra Oberlander, whose work has been featured on ABC's "Extreme Makeover: Home Edition," and George Mendoza, featured in two PBS documentaries. Flip them over to reveal the pendant is actually a domino; they're part of a the Phenominoes jewelry line. There are 27 designs in the set and the pendants sell for $26.95.
