For the compassionate

Want to buy someone a temporary home, perhaps a shelter? It's not as daunting as you might think. While it was founded in the United Kingdom, ShelterBox USA, a national disaster relief organization, is now in Lakewood Ranch. They provide humanitarian aid worldwide in the form of shelter to people displaced by natural and other disasters and have been doing so since 2000 following over 100 disasters in more than 60 countries.

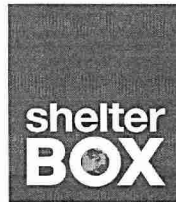

Each shelter box supplies an extended family of up to 10 people with a tent and lifesaving equipment to use while they are displaced or homeless. The contents are tailored depending on the nature and location of the disaster. Trained ShelterBox Response Teams distribute boxes on the ground, working closely with local organizations, international aid agencies, and Rotary clubs worldwide.

You can get your church or scout group, civic club, alumni club or friends and family to underwrite a shelter box. The complete Shelter

Box is $1,000 (US). This includes the purchase of new Box items, assembly, warehousing and their subsequent delivery to the site location, (covering transportation, handling, insurance) and administrative costs.

Smaller donations are also gratefully accepted. ShelterBox USA will combine partial donations and distribute a complete box when funds equal the cost of an entire box. All donations submitted with a mailing address will be sent a tax-deductible receipt, noting the Box number their contribution funded.

Donations can be made at www.shelterboxusa.org. You may also send your donation by mail: ShelterBox USA, 8374 Market Street #203, Lakewood Ranch, FL 34202 or call (941) 907-6036.

For the person on the go

From cell phones to iPods to handheld GPS systems, gadgets reign supreme in many households. But, most need to be charged to remain functional. For that boss with so many gadgets to charge, but so little time, multi-device chargers such as The Power Station Traveler, which can charge up to 3 small portable devices simultaneously, will allow the recipient to tote an array of fully functional electronics with ease. The Power Station Traveler Multi-Gadget Charger costs $32.99 and is available at www.cableorganizer.com/leather-charging-station.

For the clean break

Unotron produces fully washable keyboards and mice. Its SpillSeal Technology allows these products to be rinsed and cleaned right under the sink! These gifts are ideal for every family, as more and more households use the computer for children's games or online shopping. With crumbs, spills, and unwanted germs during flu season, these keyboards and mice make great presents for anyone from a college student, young professional, busy mom, and the germ-conscious consumer. Cost for a washable corded keyboard is $45.99 and it comes in gray or black. They also have a wireless version as well as mice. Find it at www.unotron.com

Macarons

No need to head to the Champs Elysées and make a beeline to Ladurée for macarons. Now you can find the colorful and flavorful sweet French treats right here on St. Armands. The macaron, perfected in France, has a long history dating back centuries in Europe. Macarons look like small, round shells and are created from fresh, ground almonds and soft meringue. Macarons fit in the palm of your hand. They are lightly crisp on the outside, smooth and creamy in the center, filled with ganache (chocolate), rich cream, home-made fruit jams or other quality ingredients. The co-owners are from Provence, France—Rosalie Guillem and her daughter, Audrey Saba Guillem. They're not to be confused with macaroons, the more familiar, American coconut cookie. Currently, there are 13 flavors of macarons: ginger bread, vanilla, raspberry, lemon, black currant, pistachio, walnut, crunchy praline, chocolate, ginger-chocolate, passion chocolate, white chocolate-mint & coffee. Seasonally and monthly, new flavors will be introduced to complement the collection. Dine-in or take-out. Gift boxes and favor boxes, custom orders. Visit them at 382 St. Armands Circle in Sarasota or visit them at www.lemacaron-us.com

Your personalized message here.

"[Jayalakshmi and the other slaves] the laborer who has suffered so much. And there were so many children working too. But after we came for them - there was so much joy!"
 - IJM Investigator/Doctor

UNIONISTS, THE HUSBANDS AND their young families are now in a good place and are happy and healthy. Thank you for everything you do for the world. Thank you for everything you do for the world. Thank you for everything you do for the world.

The gift of freedom

IJM's Gifts of Freedom enable you to give something memorable, meaningful and extraordinary this holiday season. In 13 countries in the developing world, International Justice Mission's frontline team of investigators, lawyers, and social workers bring freedom and restoration to victims of violent oppression including slavery, sex trafficking and illegal detention. IJM's Gifts of Freedom Gifts include:

- A care package that will serve as the first tangible gift of love for a trafficking victim rescued from a brothel.
- The high-tech investigative equipment IJM investigators use during undercover operations to document evidence of slavery
- The court fees needed to represent an impoverished victim of violent abuse in a court of law

For example, if you purchase the International Justice Mission Aftercare Package for $30 it goes to help girls rescued from sex trafficking and families rescued from forced labor slavery. It includes basic provisions, tools and household items to equip IJM clients with resources for their new lives of freedom. Freed slaves commonly receive tools for the individual's trade—a mason, for example, would receive spades of varied sizes, a corner straightener, a wooden scraper, etc. Girls rescued from forced prostitution commonly receive clothing, toiletries and bedding.

There are many other gifts of varying costs that all help those in crisis around the world. All gifts are available for purchase online at IJM's Web site www.IJM.org.
